Nominations for positions as heads Those of G. H. Gere and Chas. Thurston for County Engineer and Chief of the Fire Department respectively went through without a hitch, W. L. Frazee to be Superintendent of Electric Lights followed in the came good order and then came the main object of alarm on the part of the friends of three rival candidates, the position of Road Supervisor for this district.

JOHNSON WINS,

Mr. Dwight named Samuel Johnson and Mr. Fern nominated John Wilson Those who were not on the inside ex pected to hear the name of Charlie Broad mentioned for he was the supposed candidate of Charlie Achi, Bu it was not among those presented. Archer seconded the nomination of John son and Fern that of Wilcon and the vote was taken showing five to two in favor of the former, those voting for Johnson being Archer, Cox, Dwight, Kealoha and Hustace, A motion was then made to appoint a superintendent of garbage department. Fern said he wanted that branch of the service con ducted on different lines than it had been in the past and suggested that action on the appointment of a mar to the place be postponed to a later date. Archer asked who was to perform the duties until a man could be appointed. This seemed to be a stumbling block in the way of postponement and Mr. Harvey nominated Charlie Broad for the place and Fern seconded. Frank Archer nominated Sam Johnson and a vote was called with the following result. Johnson 5, Broad 2, the vote being the same as for Road Supervisor, Harvey and Fern voting for Broad.

CATHCART'S REQUESTS.

There were several communications from County Attorney Catheart relative to appointments. The first, however, was a request for a leave of absence for sixty days to date from January 7. Archer wanted to know the necessity for such action when the official had already gone. Mr. Olson explained that the application for leave of absence was dated so because there was a danger that he would not be able to get through his business in sixty days from the date of his departure. The permission was granted. A communication announcing the ap-

When the name of H. T. Lake was mentioned for the position of special ing. officer for duty in the County Attorney's office it looked as though there would be a halt in the work of the day. Harvey moved that action to postponed but Mr. Olson showed in a few words the importance of the confirmation of the nomination. He stated that Lake had worked up the evidence in a number of criminal cases that would be called during the present term of court and added that it was a mat ter of vital importance that he be retained. The retiring County Attorney, Mr. Douthitt, paid Lake a high tribute and added that his services are invaluable to the department, particularly at this time.

Cox said he would be willing vote for the confirmation provided it had the approval of the Sheriff. He said that officer was at the head of the police department and it would not do to make appointments without his approval. Mr. Douthitt said the afficer would have to get his commission from the Sheriff and was to that extent under his control. Mr. Cox accepted this explanation and the appointment was confirmed.

KELLOGG NEW MEMBER AGRICULTURAL BOARD

Leonard G. Kellogg, attorney at law, was commissioned yesterday by Governor Carter as a member of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, to succeed Jacob F. Brown, whose commission has expired.

In this appointment Governor Carter sought for new blood in the agricultural bureau, as he stated to an Advertiser reporter. Mr. Kellogg, he took it, had made good in developing the agricultural colony at Wahlawa, and besides his technical knowledge of farming he had other attainments that would make him a valuable member of the board.

The board already had adequate representation in the divisions other than purely agricultural. It was time, in Governor's opinion, that younger farming element of the Territory should be recognized.

REPUBLICANS IN DISCUSSION

Douthitt, who had lent their assistance during the campaign, to aid in pre-paring the bills. He included in the motion the selection of W. O. Smith as a member of the committee. He added, further, that there would be no trouble to get the money necessary for the expense entailed in employing the at-

Mr. Smith said he was willing to do everything in his power to aid. He mentioned the mistake of the legislature in passing the present bill. It had done damage on this island, Kauai and Maul, as conditions had come under his observation. He cited specific cases on Kaual where hardships were inflicted on the families of the laborers through the wage earners being able to get wine at five cents a glass. The same conditions exist here and the law should embody the provision against adulteration. The speaker thought there would be very little difference of opinion on these points but there is aiways more or less difficulty in framing a law governing the sale of liquor that cannot be evaded.

He also dwelt upon the transfer of the control of the schools and water partment. Both required careful consideration.

Mr. Robertson said the Central committee would be giad to be in the posi-tion of assistant and asked that if the members of the legislature were to draw the bills.

Mr. Smith said he thought the bills should be ready early in the session and he did not want the Democrats t be ahead.

The chair asked for opinions on other measures to be introduced.—the liquor bill was not the only measure.

Mr. Ballentyne said the business of the committee is to draft, or recom-mend measures in accordance with the platform of the Republican party. Mr. Rawlins said there would be many measures to be brought up and he believed the members should be ready; he did not think any member wanted the session to run over sixty days. Like Mr. Smith, he offered his services to the committee to aid in drafting the bills.

Mr. Smith added that the Territorial committee seemed to have paid close attention to the business. He believed, however, that the bills should be drawn in accordance with the intent of the framers of the platform. He said the business of a legislator was, to a certain extent, the defeat of improper legislation. He spoke of the law taxation, about which there is much complaint. This could be remedied by amendments. He said it would be a visable to pass essential bills only and not to go in with the idea of passing many; rather should the members see how few bills could be presented.

Senator Dowsett endorsed the marks of Senator Smith. He said the committee should get the bills in a tangible shape. He explained his connection with the liquor bill and said he was willing to bear his share of the offtim. A new one should be pre-pared and presented, but it is liable to many changes.

Senator Lane endorsed the views of both the Senators who had spoken before him

Mr. Rawlins asked for information as to the way the appropriation of $30,000 for expenses of the legislature should be disbursed. He said his impression is that the Secretary of the Territory is to give a bond and the session is not to extend beyond sixty days, that if it does the members are not to be paid for their services during the extra session. If there is a string on the appropriation the mem-bers should know it, and he favored the members meeting the Secretary and talking over the matter. Mr. Ballentyne said it occurred to him that the Secretary would have to give assurance that the session would be finished in sixty days. Mr. Rawlins believed the work should be completed in that time, for many of the small subjects that had precipitated wrangling in the past had been taken away by the establishment of county

Mr. Smith voiced the same sentiments and cited many more matters that were formerly handled by the legislature, but which are now attended to by the Federal authorities. He thought the suggestion to confer with the Secretary a good one and it might be well to consult the authorities at Washington. If the $30,000 are available without re-strictions it should be the duty of every member to work to keep within the time set apart for the regular session. He spoke of the expense the Philippines had been to the United States and how peacefully the affairs of Hawaii had been transacted, F. W. Macfarlane spoke on the same lines. He said he had learned from Secretary Atkinson that he must be satisfied that the session would termi-nate in sixty days or he would be responsible under his bond for the $30,-000. He referred to incidents in the sessions of the legislature during the monarchy, showing how time wasted in those days,

Mr. Hughes called upon the members of the legislature present to go on record as being in favor of having this amount available for all expenses the legislature.

David Kanuha gave some valuable suggestions as to the actions of the members in presenting bills and added that a Senator from each county be appointed on an appropriation commit-tee so that the framing of that bill could be completed early in the ses-

Representative Quinn agreed with every idea advanced by the Senators who had preceded him.

Representative Rawlins asked if it would be in order for the members to meet Secretary Atkinson relative the $30,000, and Mr. Smith said ti should meet him as soon as possible. Mr. Rawlins asked that the chair make an appointment with that official, Mr. Long thought he should be com-municated with at once. The information might be had tonight. But Mr. Rawlins thought that due form should be observed in making the appoint-

The chair suggested that the committee meet at the office of Senator Smith Tuesday afternoon and the Senator acquiesced. The time was fixed for p, m. The meeting then adjourned.
